Dear Sir

I take pleasure in sending you an illustrated catalogue of the sale of Laurent Richard that just took place in Paris.

His collection was one of the finest in France, and I thought it would be of some interest for you and for the museum to be posted on the prices to which the pictures have been sold.

I have put the price of each picture under the description of it.

I remain Dear Sir

Yours very truly

THE Corcoran Art Gallery in Washington, in a large degree created and maintained by the munificence of Mr. W. W. Corcoran of that city, is worth, with its paintings and statuary, $504,000, and has an endowment fund of $1,000,000. Mr. Corcoran is about to add to the gallery a liberally endowed School of Art.

Dear Sir —

I see by the enclosed (clipping from the Evening Chronicle of our City) that you are about to add to your Art Gallery a School of Art. And take the liberty of asking if it is true, and if so will it be as the Art Schools are in Germany, free — I am very anxious to take lessons in Sculpturing but cannot afford to pay very much (although willing) as I am not able, I send you a photograph of my bust of the late Miss Charlotte Cushman (in plaster) my first effort without a teacher, taken from a wood cut in Newsweek. And my personal recollections of having seen her once, for City has not one with whom I could take a lesson, and I am ashamed to say it. Hoping to hear from you I am —

Very truly yours

Dear Mr French

I received your letter of Dec 22 by this time I hope you have entirely recovered from your lameness — I have ready to send to you for the Corcoran Gallery 4 pictures Portrait of a lady (Miss Home) size including frame 63 - 43 in. "Reading Girl" 32 x 37.
"San Marco" Venice. 26 x 37 and a small picture of a water lily. Dan's portrait you have with you. These are all ready to send when you want them — I am sorry to hear that your frame was broken and will see that my boxes as you suggest are properly packed. Again thanking you for your kindness and with regards to Mrs French and Dan I remain —

Always sincerely yours

My dear J^r

Many hearty thanks for your kind and most welcome letter of 1st Inst, for which altho I have waited so long I am very grateful to you and accept your congratulations and good wishes as truly as they are given.

The limited extent of the order given to me, I can fully understand and appreciate & I am glad to see by your own letter that my conjectures were right and which induced me at all events to make the beginning and to do the best I can -

I cannot as you surmise bend my way to Paris nor do I feel any great desire to do so - My work will keep me busy here all thro' the summer months, altho' it is already so intensely hot here that the most of people are leaving the City. I am feeling very well and am hope that by care I will be able to continue my work here this summer as my studio is the coolest place in Rome. I have made my sketch of Phidias - and also a small model of Rembrandt for some future use. My Carpenter is now putting up the pedestals and niches for the figures for the gallery. I am in a little doubt about the measurements sent me by Mr. Riggs of the pedestal - he notes $19\frac{1}{2}$ inches for pedestal upon which the figures are to be placed: does this mean inclusive or exclusive of the cornice that surrounds the top of the pedestal.

please answer me this at once as it is of much importance to me.

I am very glad to hear that Mr. Cacorans health and spirits are so excellent and sincerely hope he may be blessed with health and happiness many years to come. Is the Academy building in the rear a project of Mr. Cacorans?

I am glad that you are in favour of Dixer & I hope that Mr. Riggs' reply to my last letter will confirm him as one of the four.

My winter has been delightfully passed in Rome, but I am glad it is over, as the society life here is trying upon an artist who has his work to do.

I hope that I will be able to come over to America this fall or winter for a very short stay in order to settle some important affairs that need my presence.

I must now close this hasty note and hoping that my lines may meet you very well, and again my thanks for your good wishes.

I have the honor to Remain

Yours
very truly
